

General Meeting Minutes – October 8, 2013

The October 8, 2013 General Meeting of the Central Missouri Chapter of CPCU was called to order at 7:45 a.m. by Vice President Jon Erickson.

Vice President Erickson welcomed more than 20 candidates to the meeting. Each candidate introduced themselves and shared his/her place of employment. Ryan Wiemholt was recognized for having just successfully completing his last CPCU exam.

John Ramsey introduced Darlene Grant, Battle High School Assistant Principal, who gave an overview of the building, planning and opening of Battle High School. The chapter will host a tour of the high school on October 15.

Shawn Knauts introduced our speaker, member Matt Moore. Matt spoke on “Leading Through Conflict and Crisis – Lessons from the Gridiron.” He shared the three P’s to leading through conflict - Preparation, Prevention, Perform. An honorarium was made to the Boys and Girls Club in Matt’s name.

Committee Reports:

- Membership – Diane Kidwell announced that the Membership Committee will be sending out a survey to members and encouraged everyone to complete the survey.
- Candidate Development – Matt Schwartz announced that a survey has been prepared to send to all candidates. He also announced that he and David Hubbard will be making a presentation to the Law School and hope to be able to harvest candidates from that presentation.

Jon Erickson thanked members who have volunteered to serve on committees in the coming year and encouraged all members to consider committee service.

Bill Johnston won the attendance door prize.

Meeting adjourned at 8:47 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Lori J. Meyer
Chapter Secretary
